Our Trademarks

Superb hotels and restaurants off-the-beaten-track

Unique behind the scenes access to historic buildings, including palaces and castles

YOUR VEHICLE AWAITS August 31

Your first day is spent in London where you're chauffeured to the famous Savoy Hotel – an Art Deco masterpiece glowing from a recent £212 million facelift – whose guest list has included the likes of Winston Churchill and Frank Sinatra. It's right in the heart of the West End so exploring the capital couldn't be easier. Perhaps soar in the London Eye or stroll around the Tate Modern art gallery, before an evening dinner among the chandeliers, columns and mirrors of the acclaimed Savoy Grill.

FOOT DOWN September 1

Day two and you're ready to take on the journey northwest, breaking the drive in Windsor to stroll around a town that lives in the shadow of the majestic royal castle. Lunch, in Oxfordshire, is another architectural showstopper: Baroque Blenheim Palace, a UNESCO world heritage site and birthplace of Winston Churchill. It's a nice taster for tonight's final destination and home for the next two nights – Eastnor Castle. The hugely impressive Baronial gem with a lush 5,000-acre estate swaddled by the Malvern Hills has long been the spectacular stage for the development and testing of Land Rover vehicles. Prepare for the thrilling day ahead by taking part in a convoy night drive through the inky dark grounds.

SKILL UP September 2

Get set for one of the most memorable experiences you can have behind the wheel. This is a full day off-road at Eastnor; tackling deep mud, steep hills and thick forest, along with specially designed obstacles. You're in the expert and capable hands of Land Rover Experience instructors, learning new skills in a location that is steeped in Land Rover's history. We call it off the brochure, a true 'wow' experience that the qualified instructors ensure is also perfectly safe. You'll have a picnic lunch out in the wild, before returning to the castle's stately dining room for supper. ☺

☉ TIME TO CRUISE September 3

The Cotswolds boasts some of the most quintessentially beautiful English countryside in which to experience the Land Rover’s smooth handling and power. A retreat for London’s high flyers, the area boasts the weekend home of the Prime Minister, A-list stars and supermodels. First stop is Sudeley Castle. It’s a major player in the country’s history, a stage that has seen performances by Henry VIII, Elizabeth I and Richard III. There’s tea in a lovely property dating back to the 14th Century in the stunning town of Chipping Camden, and an evening in Lower Slaughter – a heartbreakingly beautiful honey-stoned village – staying in an opulent, privately owned 17th-century manor house.

DRAMATIC DRIVE September 4

Next day takes you to the very heart of Land Rover, its home at Gaydon. Naturally, as an A&K client, you’ll get a private behind-the-scenes tour, followed by the chance to drive some vintage Land Rovers from the company’s heritage collection – there may even be some speed work on the test track.

It’s a perfect aperitif for another British classic: Stratford-Upon-Avon, home of William Shakespeare. Your private tour of the recently redeveloped RSC theatre is followed by dinner on the rooftop restaurant and, of course, the best seats in the house for one of the bard’s classic plays. Your home for the night is the recently renovated White Swan, a stunning blend of 15th-century character and 21st-century technology.

STATE OF THE ART September 5

There’s more technology on show today. You’re in Solihull, close to Britain’s car city of Birmingham, and it’s no ordinary visit. In classic A&K style, we’ve teamed up with Land Rover to offer an ‘access all areas’ private viewing of the production line. It’s a reminder of how special your vehicle is. The millionth Discovery rolled off the line a couple of years ago and promptly drove 11,000 miles to Beijing to celebrate. This is no ordinary vehicle.

You’ll also have the opportunity to test your ability on the famous Jungle Track in the heart of the factory, before returning to tarmac for a drive to Stamford in the East Midlands. Your home for the next three nights is The William Cecil, another gorgeous slice of historical architecture transformed into splendid accommodation in a Georgian town that has been likened to Bath in miniature.

THOROUGHBRED FINALE September 6 & 7

Your next two days are spent at the Burghley Horse Trials in the grounds of one of England’s great Elizabethan stately homes. A test of skill, courage and stamina, the event attracts the world’s best riders and big crowds. That won’t affect you however; as a VIP guest, you’ll benefit from Land Rover’s onsite hospitality. On day one it’s the testing cross-country course, where you have the unique opportunity to meet both riders and course designers, while the next day, it’s the show jumping – the climax of the trials.

DAYS 5-7 Off the beaten track in Ngorongoro

DAYS 8-11 Time out in Tarangire

OFF ROAD... INTO THE WILD

The marriage of two world-renowned brands synonymous with high-octane adventure and serious luxury allows you to explore iconic locations from behind the wheel of the infinitely capable Land Rover Discovery.

Our safari takes in wild, untamed, majestic Tanzania. Accompanied by expert Land Rover Experience instructors, you can explore the Serengeti, Ngorongoro Crater and Tarangire National Parks in comfort and luxury from behind the wheel of the very latest Land Rover Discovery. Under the massive canopy of Africa's sky you'll navigate wildlife-rich bush, vast open savannah and baobab-riddled creeks and then, as the setting sun stains the horizon blood red, return to A&K's mobile tented camps for our trademark blend of extraordinary opulence in astounding settings.

Could there be a better location? The African wilderness is where it all started for A&K when Geoffrey Kent set off in a Land Rover Defender stocked with army tents and his mother's silver ice bucket. Fast forward more than 50 years and we're taking you there with top-notch guides and an unparalleled reputation for safe, seamless travel in the hands of Land Rover's experts.

This is a brand new, totally unique trip.
Enjoy the ride.

YOUR EXPERIENCE AWAITS Day 1
Meet your Land Rover Experience instructor and a member of the A&K team at Kilimanjaro Airport for a transfer to Arusha Coffee Lodge, where 19 private chalets sit on a working plantation with glorious views of Mount Meru. You can take a tour, get out on a mountain bike or taste several different coffee blends: it doesn't get any fresher.

INTO THE WILD Days 2-4
Take a spectacular light aircraft flight to Seronera Airstrip in the Serengeti National Park. If excitement is already high, it will now rise further during the familiarisation and briefing. The guides and Land Rover Experience instructors will run through the day's drive in detail. And you're off. This time, you are behind the wheel, driving into the magnificent, soul-lifting, savagely remote Serengeti: your home for the next three days.

Forget any 'great drives' you have made before. This is in a different league. Tarmac, traffic and cafés belong to another planet. The Serengeti – 'endless plains' in Masai – near the northern border with Kenya, contains three million large animals with legendary twice-yearly migrations that see 1.3 million wildebeest and 200,000 zebra on the move to new grazing grounds.

After your first drive return to camp, established in a prime game viewing area with canvas tents evoking the mood of the golden age of travel. You're in the heart of the wilderness but unbelievably your ensuite tent boasts crisp linen, wall hangings, Persian rugs and wardrobes, along with hot running water, flushing toilets, solar powered lights and a private veranda. There's also a butler, silver service and exceptional meals with fresh ingredients cooked by camp chefs, including bread baked each morning in the ground. ☺

☉ Next day is all about the Serengeti – and that means more exploration and further opportunities to test your vehicle and improve your skills in the safe hands of Land Rover’s experts. You can test the Discovery’s acclaimed Terrain Response System in thick sand, deep ruts, slippery gravel and water crossings. There’s an opportunity for more challenging drives – or use the time to kick back and relax at camp if you prefer.

A decent kip – trust us, you will sleep like never before – and another day reveals more Serengeti secrets. Spectacular sightings are never far away with the migratory animals spending much of the year near the edge of the park, and common plains game including giraffe and warthog. Prides of lion hunt the herbivores while the Grumeti River in the north of the park has some of the largest Nile Crocodiles on earth. If you wish to throw some airborne excitement into the mix, we’ll organise a dawn hot air balloon flight for you.

INTO THE CRATER Days 5-7

Goodbye Serengeti, hello Ngorongoro. A drive delivers the next thrilling hit of African wilderness. But before the wildlife, the astounding archaeology. En route you’ll stop at Olduvai Gorge, where Mary and Louis Leakey made some of the planet’s most amazing finds including 3.7 million year old footprints and the skull of a 1.8 million year old man.

It’s breathtaking. Your first sight of the Ngorongoro Crater – the world’s largest unbroken caldera – from behind the wheel of your Land Rover. Twenty kilometres wide and 600m deep, it’s home to 30,000 animals including zebra, wildebeest, gazelle, buffalo and eland. And if there are grazing animals, you can guarantee there are predators with around 100 well-fed lion and 400 spotted hyena. At dawn endangered black rhino return to the cover of the magical crater forests after eating dew-laden grass in the morning mist. It’s also the stage for more superb off-road driving. All are meticulously planned by our guides and the Land Rover Experience instructors, offering superb routes and epic tests of your newfound skills.

GAME SECRETS Days 8-11

After the awe-inspiring crater, we drive onto our final location. Few operators know Africa like we do, and we happily include three mobile camp nights and two full days in Tarangire National Park, which we regard as one of the best game reserve secrets on Tanzania’s northern safari circuit. With large herds of wildebeest, buffalo and elephant – up to 300 strong – and 550 species of bird, it offers the greatest concentration of wildlife outside the Serengeti ecosystem.

And, as you’ll be delighted to find, it also offers spectacular off-road driving with widescreen panoramas of savannah grasslands, dotted with acacia woodlands and large baobabs. It’s a glorious way to wrap up your thrilling driving adventure.

GOODBYE TANZANIA Days 12 & 13

Day 12 means a fascinating drive back to Arusha for a final dinner and night at Mount Meru Hotel, departing from Kilimanjaro Airport the next morning. ☺

OFF ROAD... IN SEARCH OF TIGER

We have created a thrilling Indian adventure to stir the soul of any driving enthusiast – or indeed anyone keen to explore one of the world’s most culturally and geographically diverse locations from behind the wheel of the most capable all terrain vehicle.

The two world-renowned brands synonymous with high-octane adventure and serious luxury will take you to the heart of India in search of the rare Bengal tiger. Accompanied by Land Rover experts, you can experience wildlife-rich jungle, steep ravines and bamboo forest. As the setting sun alchemises the tropical horizon into molten gold, you’ll return, in typical A&K style, to some of the most luxurious wilderness lodges and camps. You can expect top-notch guides; our unparalleled reputation for safe seamless sumptuous travel and thanks to Land Rover, not only the ultimate vehicles, but the best driving instructors.

We couldn’t take you to India without letting you taste its extraordinary heritage and culture; after your safari experience, travel in luxury to visit some of the North’s majestic palaces, forts and historic hotels where you can sleep like a Maharaja.

HISTORICAL STARTER Days 1 & 2

Delhi has been a centre for both travel and politics for centuries. It has ancient fortresses, sun backed ruins and magnificent colonial architecture, laced with broad boulevards and juxtaposed with a dynamic high-rise modern city. In true A&K fashion, you’re swaddled by luxury in the heart of the action. The city’s Taj Mahal Hotel, blending remarkable views with a stately opulence suitable for heads of state, is your home for two nights. On the second day a sightseeing tour will reveal the Red Fort, built in 1648 by a Mughal Emperor and Jama Masjid, one of the country’s largest mosques, along with the cremation sites of both Gandhi and Nehru, and the monumental designs of Sir Edwin Lutyens. You’ll also drive past Old Delhi’s manic shopping streets – but it will be a very different story when you get behind the wheel of your Land Rover.

WILDERNESS DRIVE Day 3

A morning flight to Nagpur is followed by a driver briefing and familiarisation with your Land Rover vehicle. Make the journey through the central Indian state of Madhya Pradesh to Pench National Park – the site of your first game drive later that day.

As you’d expect with A&K we haven’t gone for the road well travelled. Remote Pench National Park is less famous than Ranthambore. It does, however, have the same prolific wildlife but without the crowds, producing a superior safari – and a superior driving experience.

You’ll be taking in one of the finest parks in Asia, navigating a route across verdant meadows, lush sal and bamboo forests and crinkled valleys that provided the inspiration for Rudyard Kipling’s Jungle Book. As well as splendid birdlife and tigers, there are black buck, swamp deer and Indian elephants, along with peacock, three-striped palm squirrels and jackal. ☺

OFF ROAD...
IN SEARCH OF TIGER

☉ KEEP IT WILD Day 4

Day four of the adventure sees you driving across the state into the Seoni and Chhindwara districts, home to Pench National Park. A beguiling mix of hills up to 650m high, teak forest and valleys, threaded with meandering jungle streams, it provides another gloriously photogenic stage on which to develop and finesse your driving skills in the hands of Land Rover's expert instructors. Along with the tiger – its name means Tiger Forest – Pench has leopards, wild dog and wolf, as well as hyena and over 300 species of birds, including the crested serpent eagle.

The Taj camp has 12 suites with a coolly retro vibe and fabulous machan: covered rooftop platforms perfect for jungle sleep outs. They line a dried riverbed, which is a favourite route of the tiger, and you can expect to sip iced sundowners under the huge Banyan tree entertained by acrobatic flying squirrels.

CULTURE CALLING Days 5 & 6

After a final morning game drive, transfer to Nagpur to fly to Delhi for a night at the Taj Palace, before a luxury transfer to Agra, home of the Taj Mahal. We recommend a sunset or sunrise visit to witness the exquisite symmetrical white marble changing colours in the fading light. It's not the only sight. Far from it. The UNESCO listed 16th century Red Fort, on the Yamuna river, is more like a walled city housing palaces, mosques, a treasury and mint, and was the place from which many of the great Mughals governed the country.

You'll spend the night just a few hundred yards from the Taj Mahal in the five-star cocoon of The Oberoi Amarvilas where the classical architecture comes with elaborate gardens of dazzling lawns, fountains and pools.

MUGHALS & MAHARAJAS Days 7 & 8

The next two days are based in Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan, dubbed the 'Pink City' for its rose coloured buildings. The transfer is broken by a stop at the perfectly preserved site of Fatehpur Sikri, a stunning web of 16th century palaces, halls and mosques regarded as the crowning architectural glory of Emperor Akabar. It split the business of ruling the Mughal Empire with Agra, moving its court and harem to the Red Fort when war looked likely.

Fatehpur is a perfect taster for your later arrival in Jaipur, whose treasures include The Palace of the Winds, the Jantar Mantar Observatory and Amber Fort. Your base for the two nights isn't exactly short on history, either: the Taj Rambagh Palace. Home to royalty for almost two centuries, it became the residence of the Maharaja of Jaipur in 1925 and a luxury hotel in 1957, with a surrounding quilt of 47 acres of elegant gardens and exotic foliage.

CHEQUERED FLAG Day 9

Your extraordinary Indian road trip ends on day nine with a transfer back to Delhi. ☹

LAND ROVER EXPERIENCE INSTRUCTOR

Mark Frost

Mark, or 'Frosty' as he's better known, has been in the Fire Service for over 20 years – and a Land Rover Experience Instructor at Eastnor for nearly ten. Working shifts for the Fire Service allowed Mark to indulge his passion for working as a senior instructor, coaching professional bodies and discerning Land Rover customers. Growing up on a farm, Mark had an early knowledge of Land Rover vehicles, with a bashed up Defender at home and later using the vehicles in the Fire Service. Teaching at Eastnor allows him to work closely with Land Rover customers: injecting a little humour into his instruction is what Mark does best, although imparting his wisdom and helping all his customers leave with a smile on their faces is something we think is a bit special too.
